ARCHBISHOP OF CANTERBURY SAYS ANTISEMITISM “IS OFTEN IGNORED AND DISMISSED”

#togetheragainstantisemitism

ARCHBISHOP:
“WE MUST STAND
TOGETHER AGAINST
ANTISEMITISM”

Antisemitism is an insidious evil. The habits of antisemitism have been burrowing into European and British culture for as long as we can remember.

Even today, in the 21st century, it is shocking that antisemitism still has traction; the virus continues to seek a host. It latches onto a variety of different issues: financial inequality, wars and depressions, education, politics and government, grave international issues, such as the rights of Israelis and Palestinians, and interfaith tensions. It twists them to its own ends, with the perverted and absurd argument that a small group runs or plots against our society and manipulates international affairs.

ARCHBISHOP: “WE MUST STAND
TOGETHER AGAINST ANTISEMITISM”

Antisemitism is at the heart of racism. Yet, because it is so deeply entrenched in our thought and culture, it is often ignored and dismissed. This tendency must be vigorously resisted; antisemitism needs to be confronted in every part of our communal life and cultural imagination.

WHY WE MUST SPEAK OUT

First they came for the socialists, and I did not speak out –

Because I was not a socialist

Then they came for the trade unionists –

And I did not speak out –

Because I was not a trade unionist

Then they came for the Jews, and I did not speak out –

Because I was not a Jew.

Then they came for me – and there was no one left to speak for me.

The only thing necessary for the triumph of evil ...
... is that good men do nothing.

DEFINITIONS

Definition of an upstander:

‘An upstander is someone who recognises when something is wrong and acts to make it right. Being an upstander is being a hero: we are standing up for what is right and doing our best to help support and protect someone who is being hurt.’

Definition of a bystander:

‘A bystander is someone who does not speak up or act when they see an act of intolerance taking place.’

MODERN ANTISEMITISM

- Modern day antisemitism encompasses ideas from far-right, far-left and Islamist ideology.
- Unlike other forms of racism, antisemitism often views Jews as “cunning and powerful” rather than denigrating them.

ARCHBISHOP: “WE MUST STAND TOGETHER AGAINST ANTISEMITISM”

All humans are made in the image of God. Antisemitism undermines and distorts this truth: it is the negation of God's plan for his creation and is therefore a denial of God himself. There is no justification for the debasing and scapegoating of other people. Antisemitism is the antithesis of all that our scriptures call us to be and do, to work together for the common good and to seek the flourishing of all.

The challenge for us is to remain vigilant, to stand together and to speak out.
