

A photograph of a crowd of people at a protest or demonstration. In the background, there is a large, light-colored building with Gothic-style architectural features, including pointed arch windows. Several people are holding up blue signs with white text that reads "ZERO TOLERANCE FOR ANTISemitism". The crowd is diverse in age and appearance. The overall scene is slightly blurred, suggesting movement or a candid shot. The text "LOVE YOUR NEIGHBOUR" is overlaid in large, white, bold, sans-serif capital letters in the center of the image.

ARCHBISHOP: “WE MUST STAND TOGETHER AGAINST ANTISEMITISM”

Even today, in the 21st century, it is shocking that antisemitism still has traction; the virus continues to seek a host. It latches onto a variety of different issues: financial inequality, wars and depressions, education, politics and government, grave international issues, such as the rights of Israelis and Palestinians, and interfaith tensions. It twists them to its own ends, with the perverted and absurd argument that a small group runs or plots against our society and manipulates international affairs.

Antisemitism is at the heart of racism. Yet, because it is so deeply entrenched in our thought and culture, it is often ignored and dismissed. This tendency must be vigorously resisted; antisemitism needs to be confronted in every part of our communal life and cultural imagination.

Prejudice

Dislike of an individual or a group of people based on ideas that are false.

Our Differences

If you hear someone say 'all Jews, black people or Irish are'... you know it is prejudice. Not all black people, Asian people or Jewish people are the same. There are good and bad people of all religions, colours and nationalities. People are just people. Prejudice against Jews is called antisemitism. Antisemitism is a hatred of Jews – individually or as a group. It is the world's oldest hatred.

Why we must speak out

First they came for the socialists, and I did not speak out

Because I was not a socialist

Then they came for the trade unionists –

And I did not speak out –

Because I was not a trade unionist

Then they came for the Jews, and I did not speak out –

Because I was not a Jew.

Then they came for me – and there was no one left to speak for me.

Definitions

Definition of an upstander:

"An upstander is someone who recognises when something is wrong and acts to make it right. Being an upstander is being a hero: we are standing up for what is right and doing our best to help support and protect someone who is being hurt."

Definition of a bystander:

'A bystander is someone who does not speak up or act when they see an act of intolerance taking place.'

Edmund Burke

Archbishop

“We must stand together against antisemitism”

“All humans are made in the image of God. Antisemitism undermines and distorts this truth: it is the negation of God’s plan for his creation and is therefore a denial of God himself. There is no justification for the debasing and scapegoating of other people. Antisemitism is the antithesis of all that our scriptures call us to be and do, to work together for the common good and to seek the flourishing of all.

The challenge for us is to remain vigilant, to stand together and to speak out.”
